Warwick Cover products are designed by 'The Over 50 Specialists' of the insurance industry, to provide the most appropriate cover, with exceptional benefits.

Warwick Wealth's insurance product house offers bespoke, short-term insurance solutions for use by both individual and corporate clients.

With offices well-placed to cover the whole of South Africa, Warwick Cover is able to offer excellent client care to its extensive client base. The core focus of the company is to cater for the short-term insurance needs of clients over fifty-years-old. A unique product offering has been developed, in conjunction with leading local and international underwriters, resulting in competitive premiums and superb policy benefits.

Warwick Cover has a client ethic that has been lost in many other companies within the insurance industry. The company brings a caring approach to short-term insurance, with quality products supported by a highly-motivated and efficient team of insurance experts, delivering unrivalled personal service.

The areas of cover and asset protection offered are extensive, yet even the most complicated cases are handled in a professional, logical and caring manner.
